AWARD FOR ENGINEERING EDUCATION RESEARCH DESIGN NOMINATION FORM

Award nominations must be submitted by Wednesday, 16 October 2019 via this link:
<https://www.engineersaustralia.org.au/About-Us/Awards/Open-For-Nomination>

Award for rigorous, innovative and transferable research design in the field of Engineering Education. Applicants may be individual or small teams.

JUDGING CRITERIA

Criteria:

- Focus and relevance – state clearly the questions or propositions addressed and the significance of the research to engineering education research or practice
- Context and Contribution – situate the research within relevant bodies of knowledge and describe how it contributes to new knowledge (Note: the relevant body of knowledge should be wider than engineering education and relates to the wider context of education research, frameworks, methodologies, etc.)
- Research validity/credibility and reliability/dependability – describe research designs, methods, theories, and/or practices appropriate to the research performed or planned and the transportability of the processes. (research validity and reliability or credibility and dependability)
- Results and generalizability/transferability – present original ideas or results of general significance supported by clear reasoning and compelling evidence
- Clarity and readability – exhibit clear, concise, and precise exposition that appeals to a broad international readership interested in engineering education research and practice
- Useful Illustrations – provide tables and figures, as needed, that meaningfully add to the narrative

Submissions for the awards must be no more than five (5) A4 pages addressing the relevant criteria, including a 150 word abstract (minimum 12 point font). Award winners will be invited to produce a video presentation on their work to be showcased to the AAEE community.
